About ASCD:

Welcome to the Hofstra University ASCD Student Chapter Club. ASCD, the Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development is a worldwide organization that promotes professional development among educators. Being an international group, ASCD is comprised of members from over 135 countries. Thanks to the establishment of Hofstra's student chapter both undergraduate and graduate students from Hofstra have become part of the ASCD community.

Our Third Seminar:

Welcome to our Third ASCD chapter club seminar of the 2008-2009 school year. Our last meeting with Dr. Martin Brooks was very informative and interactive. Not only did Dr. Brooks discuss the impact the upcoming election will have on the education community and the importance of voting, but he also encouraged students and faculty to ask questions and voice their concerns. He did a wonderful job helping us understand how the government does impact schools. On behalf of the executive board, we are all impressed by the turnout at our seminars – seeing not only students but faculty members as well.

Our keynote speaker this evening is Sandy Levy from Fox Books. Sandy will be talking about new books that can be used to add to your library in the classroom. In addition, Sandy will be selling the books she will be discussing what is new in children's books.

Sandy Levy has a great breath and depth of knowledge.
